PURPOSE:

To obtain approval for an appropriate congratulatory letter to be sent to Mr. E. Henry Knoche who has been sworn in as the Deputy Director of CIA.

SYNOPSIS:

Mr. E. Henry Knoche was nominated by the President and approved by the Senate to be Deputy Director of the CIA. He was sworn in in this capacity on 7/7/76 at CIAHQ. He succeeds Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, U. S. Army. In this regard, memorandum V. V. Kolombatovic to T. W. Leavitt dated 4/30/76 recommended and was approved that a letter recognizing Walter's retirement be sent from the Director. Consistent therewith, we should also recognize Knoche's appointment as the new Deputy Director of CIA. Knoche is a career CIA employee who is well known to FBIHQ officials and representatives of the Intelligence Division, and our relationship with him has been most favorable.

DETAILS:

Mr. E. Henry Knoche was designated by the President to succeed Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, U. S. Army, as the Deputy Director of the CIA. On 7/1/76, the Senate approved Mr. Knoche's appointment and on 7/7/76, Knoche was sworn in at CIAHQ. Memorandum V. V. Kolombatovic to T. W. Leavitt dated 4/30/76 recommended and was approved that a letter from the Director be forwarded to General Walters recognizing his retirement from Government Service. Consistent therewith, we should also acknowledge Knoche's appointment as the new Deputy Director of CIA. Knoche is a career CIA officer who is known to FBIHQ officials and representatives of the Intelligence Division. We have had a most cordial and favorable relationship with him in the past and it is believed his appointment as the Deputy Director of CIA will further enhance the relationship which prevails between the FBI and the CIA.
